OBJECT OF THE GAME: To score by knocking the puck into the goal. Goals can be scored by Direct Shots into the slot, Bank Shots off the side boards, or by Double Bank Shots off the corner blocks and goal block.

THE GAME: The puck is put into play by one of the players dropping the puck in the face-off center. A player can hit the puck only when the puck is in his defense zone area (area between the black line & players' goal) or the center free play area. A player cannot hit the puck when it lies in his opponents' defense area. A puck knocked out of the arena is put into play from the defense area of the opponent responsible for the out-of-bounds shot. A players' play position is directly behind the goal. Play from along the side of the arena is not permitted.

SCORE: One point for each goal on any type shot. Set your own total.
